

Before reading the next passage, ponder a little on what you do first before recruiting. Sharing the same obvious, calling in resumes from all applicant's, sorting them, matching their skills with job description, validating info on resumes through social profiles, screening and few other checks suited to your industry.

That's a heck of a task. Recruiters need to do all day long for weeks and even months prospecting the best fit for positions. Finally, it all boils down to CV Management. Any ABC software, you might be using, can be checked on its efficiency by the way it manages resumes and the software to do this job is Resume Parser.
